WILL MEET

Representatives of Thirteen Counties
Will Convene in Covington Today to Determine Whether or Not a Tuberculosis Sanatorium
Will Be Built.

The Seventh Tuberculosis Sanatorium district meeting will convene in the Covington city hall this morning at 10 o'clock. The meeting is being held under the auspices of the Kentucky Board of Tuberculosis Commissioners.

The morning session will convene at 10 o'clock this morning and lasts until 12:30. The presiding officer will appoint organizing committees at the opening of the meeting. The address of welcome will be delivered by County Judge Read of Kenton county. Governor Stanley is scheduled to deliver an address following the welcoming speech. Addresses will then be delivered by county delegates and members of the Tuberculosis commission. A buffet lunch will be served in the committee room of the city hall from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock. The afternoon session will open at 1:30 and last until 4:30 when an automobile trip through the county for proposed sanatorium sites will be taken.

Delegates from thirteen counties are present at the meeting the following being represented: Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Harrison, Kenton, Mason, Owen, Pendleton, Robertson and Trimble. The Committee on Arrangements consist of County Judges Read and Boltz of Kenton and Campbell counties, Attorney McLaughlin, County Attorney Hanlon and Dr. J. Rick Meek.

O'Keefe Building.

Col. L. M. Maus of the State Tuberculosis commission will be in attendance. It is expected the delegates will select a site for the sanatorium in Kenton county, which will be the headquarters for the seventh sanatorium district.

County Judge W. H. Rice, County Attorney W. H. Rees and County Health Officer J. S. Harover are attending the meeting from this county. There will be over seventy-five delegates from the thirteen counties present at the meeting.

FILES SUIT FOR DAMAGES

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday through his attorney F. P. O'Donnell, Alfred V. Travis filed two petitions against the Bato & Rogers Construction Co. for damages for injuries received while in their employ. He states that through the negligence of the employees of the company superior to him large quantities of concrete fell on him eating through his skin and poisoning his entire system. He asks for $500 damages.

In the second petition he states that he was required each month to make a deposit for hospital services in case of accident. This amount to seventy-five cents per month. He says that he did not receive proper attention from the company's doctor. He asks for $400 damages in this case, the total damages in the two suits amounting to $900.

PUT ON EXTRA COACH

On account of the popularity of C. & O. train No. 1 which arrives here at 9:19 a. m., an extra coach has been placed on the train for the accommodation of the many who use it. This train has proved very popular from Huntington to Cincinnati, as one does not have to arise so early to catch it as they did for the earlier train.

WAGON CAUGHT IN TRACKS

An ice wagon was caught in the car tracks in front of Chenoweth's Drug Store this morning. Part of the bricks in the track had to be taken up to allow the wagon wheel to be moved.

Draft Reply to Plan of Wilson—Employees Grow Restless at Delay—No Revolt Expected Unless Conference Drags—Traffic Executives in Long Session—Cabinet Discusses Situation.

Washington, August 22—Eight presidents of important railway systems who have been designated to draft the railroads' reply to President Wilson's appeal that they accept his plan for averting a nation-wide strike, were in almost continuous session today and tonight solving their problems.

Late tonight three of the committee men; Hale Holden, of the Burlington; R. S. Lovett, of the Union Pacific, and Daniel Willard, of the Baltimore & Ohio, discussed the situation with President Wilson. They were at the White House for more than an hour and on leaving declined to talk about their visit, further than to say they had asked for the conference to "discuss the general situation" and expected to see the President again.

Definite Answer Soon
Although some of the sixty or more presidents are showing a disposition to prolong the negotiations in the hope that the sentiment of business men of the country will be shown to be opposed to the idea of an eight-hour day, there was a general feeling tonight that a definite answer to President Wilson's demands can not be much longer postponed. The President is understood to have indicated that he desires his proposal to be fully debated by the executives, but their conferences among themselves have failed so far to develop any concrete plan likely to win approval.

So far as the President would discuss the situation tonight, they still are insisting upon an arbitration of the eight-hour day and all other issues with the employees. As the conferences continue their less talk of action which would lead to a strike, but some of the executives are expected to fight to the last ditch any plan which would force an eight-hour day upon the roads without some form of arbitration.

No New Plans Developed
It is understood the White House conference tonight did not develop any actual plans, but that the three executives wished to get President Wilson's views on various phases of the matter so that they could be outlined to the rest of the committee tomorrow. The executives are said to realize that Mr. Wilson can not recede from the position he has publicly taken, and some of them are convinced now that about all they can hope for is to come out with some concessions.

Among the more than 600 representatives of the railroad Brotherhoods in Washington there was evident today a feeling of restlessness, and there were many inquiries of leaders as to how long they must remain. It is not expected that this feeling will lead to any open revolt unless the conferences between President Wilson and the executives are prolonged.

Executives Seek Support
The railroad executives who are counting upon winning the President to their position in the negotiations say that the case after all is to be decided by public opinion, and that this will be found to support arbitration and condemn the eight-hour day. They made public tonight several telegrams from commercial organizations throughout the country upholding arbitration for the settlement of labor disputes and opposing an eight-hour day such as the employees desire.

The cabinet discussed the situation at today's meeting and, in the opinion of some, the danger of a strike has been greatly lessened.

It is understood that the chief object of the visit to the White House was to ask the President to state specifically how he expected the railroads to make up the millions of dollars which the managers say it will cost them to put into effect the eight-hour basic day they are asked to grant. What the President said in reply none of the committeemen would reveal.

Heretofore, according to the railroad men, Mr. Wilson has dealt with this phase of the subject only in the most general terms.

THE "OLD RELIABLE"

Germantown Fair Begins Today and Will Continue Until Saturday Night—Many Will Attend.

Today is the first day of the "Old Reliable" Germantown Fair being held at the fair grounds at Germantown this week. The fair will last until Saturday night.

The "Old Reliable" is one of the best known fairs in the State of Kentucky, this being the sixty-second annual exhibition. It is conducted by the Germantown Fair Company of Mason and Bracken counties, which has always made great effort to insure the success of the exhibition and have in all cases succeeded. Expert judges have been selected in every department and absolutely no favoritism will be shown to any person having any animal or article on display.

The Company is very desirous of getting a great number of entries in the events and therefore are offering special inducement to persons wishing to exhibit. They offer free stalls to animals and free bedding to the trainers. There will be no charge whatsoever in any event and the competition is open to the world.

The company will use every legitimate means to prevent the vending of rident spirits, gaming and every other species of vicious procedure on their grounds during the exhibition. In view thereof they earnestly solicit the presence and support of all good people.

There will be a number of trucks making the trip to and from the grounds several times a day and it is expected that a large crowd will go from Maysville for each day. A large crowd went out this morning.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday, Clarence L. Purdon filed suit for divorce against his wife, Stella Purdon of Cincinnati.

The plaintiff stated that he and the defendant were married on December 24, 1904, and that they had lived together as man and wife from the time of marriage, excepting two or three voluntary abandonments on the part of the defendant without fault on his part, until March 10, 1916, when she finally abandoned him without cause and without his knowledge and has not lived with the plaintiff since. He says that during the time they lived together as man and wife he always treated the defendant in a kind and affectionate manner and provided not only comfortably for her support, but, for a hard working man, even extravagantly to satisfy her every whim. The plaintiff asks for absolute divorce. Mr. F. P. O'Donnell represents the plaintiff.

DANCE WILL BE HELD IN AUGUST

NEW YORK LETTER
(From Our Regular Correspondent)

Will Fight For Millin—Senator Townsend of Michigan has announced his purpose to fight for the militiamen who in normal times are employed in the mail service. Many private institutions have announced that they will pay militiamen their regular salaries while they are on military duty, or will at least give them the difference between their regular salaries and the amount it may be necessary to pay substitutes to perform their regular duties, according to Senator Townsend. Not so, the Post Office Department, in what the Senator terms "a bluff at economy," not only have the militiamen been dropped from the government rolls, but instead of employing temporary substitutes the Postmaster General has appointed men to the permanent roll to fill the vacancies, thus putting himself in a position where he cannot, without an act of Congress, restore those serving with the National Guard. Furthermore, the pay of substitutes is fixed by law at 40 cents an hour, while most of the regular employees received considerably higher compensation. Instead of seeking authority from Congress to pay the difference to the guardsmen—which authority would have been readily granted—Postmaster General Burleson is filling the vacancies with permanent men at 27½¢ an hour and purposes, Mr. Townsend declares, to utilize the saving effected to make a showing of economy.

carried than the displacement of Ambassador Herrick, at Paris. Mr. Herrick was rendering service so extraordinary for its efficiency, under the most delicate and difficult circumstances, that he had compelled the unqualified admiration not only of the French, but of the entire European diplomatic corps. He was the energetic, sympathetic, skillful friend of the thousands of non-combatant citizens of the Central powers who were detained in France because of the war and were in dire need of the services which he so freely rendered them. And Mr. Herrick was displaced to make room for an amiable gentleman from Indiana without either experience or qualifications but only "a deserving Democrat."

More Millin To Border—Much mystery attaches to the ordering by President Wilson of an additional 25,000 national guardsmen to the Mexican border. The impression prevails that the administration knows conditions in Mexico to be even more menacing than is generally realized, and suggestions that the Carranza regime is tottering and about to fall are again rife. The Secretary of War has asserted that the ordering of more militiamen to the border at this time is wholly without significance, explaining that the order is due to the falling off of enlistment and "because the Guard was not fully equipped." He further adds that the training the men will receive on the border will be highly beneficial. The explanation is, however, received with scepticism, for the reason that all who are well informed realize that the guardsmen could be far better trained in their respective home camps, where they would not be subjected to an unaccustomed and almost tropical climate; that it is a serious menace to their health to send them to the border until they have had adequate training, both for the purpose of hardening them physically and of educating them in the proper methods of caring for themselves and protecting their health in the proper methods of caring for themselves and protecting their health in the field. There is every reason to fear that a terrible record of unpaired constitutions, serious illnesses and even deaths will result from sending to the border practically 125,000 guardsmen, most of whom have had no adequate prior physical training, and it is regarded as inconceivable that the administration would have ordered an additional 25,000 men to the border unless compelled to do so by some undisclosed grave development.

Job For Contributors—The attention of your correspondent is called to the fact that there is a disposition in some quarters to go far too far in criticizing the awarding of political jobs to contributors to the Wilson campaign fund. It is pointed out that there is nothing intrinsically bad in giving a good place to a man who has contributed to the presidential campaign fund. What is bad is the appointment to important offices of men without the ability to give good service, merely because they were contributors to the campaign fund, and the displacing of men who are rendering especially good service, or serving with skill in peculiarly difficult positions, merely to make room for what Secretary Bryan termed "deserving Democrats." No more striking example of what is condemned has occurred than the displacement of Ambassador Herrick, at Paris. Mr. Herrick was rendering service so extraordinary for its efficiency, under the most delicate and difficult circumstances, that he had compelled the unqualified admiration not only of the French, but of the entire European diplomatic corps. He was the energetic, sympathetic, skillful friend of the thousands of non-combatant citizens of the Central powers who were detained in France because of the war and were in dire need of the services which he so freely rendered them. And Mr. Herrick was displaced to make room for an amiable gentleman from Indiana without either experience or qualifications but only "a deserving Democrat."

DECYRING INTERFERENCE, WE INTERFERED IN MEXICO EXASPERATINGLY.

The dealings of the Administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders. We have not helped Mexico. She lies prostrate, impoverished, famine-stricken, overwhelmed with the woes and outrages of internecine strife, the helpless victim of a condition of anarchy which the course of the Administration only served to promote. For ourselves, we have witnessed the murder of our citizens and the destruction of their property. We have made enemies, not friends. Instead of commanding respect and deserving good will by sincerity, firmness, and consistency, we provoked misapprehension and deep resentment. In the light of the conduct of the Administration no one could understand its professions. Decrying interference, we interfered most exasperatingly. We have not even kept out of actual conflict, and the soil of Mexico is stained with the blood of our soldiers. We have resorted to physical invasion, only to retire without gaining the professed object. It is a record which cannot be examined without a profound sense of humiliation. From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

BEST EVIDENCE

New York "World" accuses Mr. Hughes of being pro-German. "The Fatherland," the organ of those who would have the United States violate its neutrality for Germany's benefit, asks Mr. Hughes ten questions which are designed to carry the accusation that he is pro-British. These directly conflicting charges against him will be regarded as the best evidence that he is just plain American, without bias toward either side.—Albany Journal.

Now that Mr. Hughes knows he has been nominated for president, we may wait patiently for a few days longer to hear what Mr. Wilson has to say about it.

How Pineapple Juice and Pepsin Relieves Stomach Trouble

The juice of pineapples contains ferments used by the stomach in the digestion of food. Pepsin is supplied by every stomach, but many times in insufficient quantities. These two when combined with the other ingredients in Natol Pineapple Pepsin Compound furnish to the stomach exactly the right proportion to digest the food. Strong laxatives are an injury and are not needed where the food is properly digested.

Natol Pineapple Pepsin Compound is not a patent medicine but a corrective and assistant in overcoming all stomach troubles. One bottle (50c) is usually enough to give permanent relief. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

MR. HUGHES ANSWERS — THOSE WHO CLAMORED FOR HIS VIEWS ARE HEARING THEM

Those friends of Democracy who clamored so loudly for Mr. Hughes' opinions upon current issues while he still held the high office of justice of the supreme court, are now fully answered by the private citizen, who surrendered his judicial position to accede to the wishes of a majority of the people as expressed through their instructions to their delegates to the Republican national convention.

Mr. Hughes has not disappointed those who have reposed confidence in his character and judgment. In his speech of acceptance he has clearly set forth the vital issues upon which the Republican party proposes to conduct the campaign this fall. On the platform he is telling the nation wherein the present administration has been at fault and what is necessary to be done to restore the United States to the place of respect and honor to which it is entitled in the eyes of the world.

HUGHES

Gives View on Tariff to Westerners—Cites Underwood Act As an Attempt to Cripple and Destroy The Entire Sugar Industry of the Country.

San Diego, Ca., August 21—Charles E. Hughes, addressing an audience on the exposition grounds here today, outlined his views on the protective tariff, dominant Americanism, national unity and preparedness.

Mr. Hughes cited the removal of the tariff on sugar by the Underwood act as an illustration of a policy to which he was opposed.

"Why should these have been an attempt to cripple and destroy the sugar industry in this country?" he said.

"Was there any reason for it? Was there any statesmanship in it? Was it called for by the country? No.

"Our friends discovered their mistake after a while, but we desire to be represented by those who have foresight and not simply hindsight.

For America First

"America must be sound and honest in its public life, but it must be business-like. It must direct, it must be patriotic, with America first and America efficient.

"My friends of California do not misunderstand me. There is not going to be any private grip on any public privilege for any corporate interest or combination of interests at the expense of the interests of the people of the United States if I can prevent it."

Mr. Hughes spoke of the need of "Industrial co-operation."

"The man who looks upon his laborers simply as mere economic units has not caught the vision of the Twentieth Century," he said.

"What we need in this country is not demagoguery, not standpatism, but the sense of a deep desire to benefit our fellow man by working together to that end according to the spirit of our institutions.

"We do not wish to wait," Mr. Hughes continued, "until an important industry is crippled and in danger of destruction."

Quotes Louisiana Case

"The good people of Louisiana protested in vain. They went to their own administration in vain. They presented facts only to be disregarded.

"Now, I protest against any action aimed at the crippling of American enterprise. Why should American industries go out of business? In order that we may buy goods abroad. That is not sound American policy."

The nominee declared he favored "the protection of the generations of the future."

"I believe in preventing children from being drawn too early into the hardship of industrial life," he said.

Mr. Hughes again assailed the administration for its Mexican policy and declared for the protection of American rights abroad.

"I believe this nation should have the strength that proper preparedness requires in order that we may not stand in danger of being misunderstood as to our ability to maintain our just rights," he said.

Defends Hughes' Record in Regard to Labor

Washington, August 21—The Republican Publicity Association, anticipating an attack by Samuel Compers, President of the American Federation of Labor, on Charles E. Hughes because of the famous Danbury Hatters' case, today issued an appeal to labor in defense of Mr. Hughes.

The statement says the decision of Mr. Hughes, then on the Supreme Court bench, was "not subversive of the just rights of labor."

"For the passage of the statutes he was in nowise responsible," it continues. "It was his sole function to determine their legal application to the cases at bar to the best of his ability."

ADMITS PREPARATION FOR U. BOATHRENNES AT CONNECTICUT PIER

Norfolk, Va., August 21—Captain Collison of the tug Hansa, formerly the Thomas F. Timmins, said today it was true that the Eastern Forwarding Company to which the cargo of the German submarine merchantmen Deutschland was assigned, had leased a pier at New London, Conn. Previous reports that such a step had been taken in anticipation of the arrival there of the Bremen, sister ship of the Deutschland, have been denied.

It was reported in German circles here today that the Hansa, which conveyed the Deutschland to American waters, would go to New London before the end of the month and that much of the movable property of the Eastern Forwarding Company would be taken there from Baltimore.

According to this story, the Bremen left a German port August 14.

CHILDREN'S KIDNEYS

No Maysville Mother Should Neglect the Little One's Health.

Often times weak kidneys cause great annoyance and embarrassment to children. Inability to control the kidney secretions, at night or while at play, is attributed to carelessness and too frequently the child is punished. Parents having children troubled with kidney weakness would do well to treat the kidneys with a tested and proven kidney remedy. If there is pain in the back, discolored urine, irregular urination, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, try Doan's Kidney Pills at once. This remedy has been used in kidney troubles for over 50 years and has been recommended by thousands. Convincing proof of merit in the following statement. It's from a resident of this locality.

Mrs. B. M. French, E. Second St., Augusta, Ky., says: "Measles left my children with weak kidneys. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and couldn't be controlled at night. Most everything was tried, but without benefit. Doan's Kidney Pills, however, gave the children quick relief."

A SECOND STATEMENT.
OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mrs. French said: "I am pleased to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. French has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

AMERICAN RIGHTS.

"No one could successfully present to an American audience that an American citizen's rights stepped with the coast line."

"There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is Americanism in its place, and if elected, I am going to see that American rights are protected."

LABOR.

"The working man is not asking anything he should not have. All he wants is a square deal."

"No such thing as prosperity exists for just one class in America, unless it exists for all."

"The Republican party does not stand for the prosperity produced by the war, but for a prosperity produced by sound American policies and these are what we propose to have."

PREPAREDNESS.

"Do not let us get this country into a low patriotic plane so that we are content with disesteem, with the scorn of the world."

"I am an American citizen, ought to be the proudest title in the world."

CIVIL SERVICE.

"We had in the coast and geodetic survey an eminent scientist. He was displaced to make room for an excellent stock breeder."

"It is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it."

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

MOWER PARK

A. F. Felts Sends Letter Concerning Campmeeting There—Much Interest in the Meetings.

Mower Park, August 22, 1916—It is the general opinion that the campmeeting is one of the best ever held here. Last week the interest was unusually good and the attendance large. Rev. E. P. Hall of Covington came last Saturday. He was at his best and while here preached four excellent sermons which were highly appreciated. At the close of the service Sunday many manifested a desire to lead a better life.

Sunday was a banner day for attendance. There were more people on the grounds than have been here for many a year.

The interest continues good for this week. On last evening there was one who decided for Christ and many were deeply impressed for the better.

Rev. E. R. Overley, District Superintendent, will arrive next Saturday and will be the preacher for next Sunday. Brother Overley is successful not only as a pastor, but also in campmeetings. It will be a treat to the best spiritual things to hear this man of God.

Mr. George W. Royce of Maysville will lead the song service and will also sing some solos next Sunday. His singing makes a deep impression on any congregation. You should hear him.

This week is the last chance you will have to attend these meetings for this year and enjoy the cool breezes on this high, well-shaded park, as the last service will be held next Sunday night.

We are planning and praying that the good work may continue to grow better so that the whole community may feel the effects and may give themselves to Christ's service.

A. F. FELTS.

HUGHES, HOMEWARD BOUND, MAKES SIXTEEN SPEECHES

Sacramento, Cal., August 22—Charles E. Hughes, before an audience in the armory tonight, declared for an adequate compensation law providing compensation to persons injured in hazardous employment or engaged in interstate commerce. Mr. Hughes also spoke of labor legislation enacted under Republican administration.

Mr. Hughes' speech here tonight was the sixteenth he had made today. Most of them were two or three minute talks from the rear platform of his car up the San Joaquin valley from Los Angeles. He was very tired and somewhat hoarse tonight.

REMAINS WILL BE BROUGHT HERE

The remains of Mr. Frank Lane who died at Washington, D. C., Monday night, will arrive here this afternoon for burial in the Washington cemetery. Mr. Lane is survived by three brothers, William Lane of the county, Joseph Lane and John Lane of Frankfort, and one sister, Mrs. John O'Neil of Mhuerva.

TWO SUITS

Filed Against Bates & Rogers Construction Co. by Val H. Manning for Injuries Received While in Their Employ and for Lack of Care After Accident.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday through his attorney, F. P. O'Donnell, Val H. Manning filed two suits against the Bates and Rogers Construction Co. for seven thousand dollars, five thousand being asked for damages and the remainder for failing to provide proper treatment after the accident.

In the first petition he states that on July 9, 1916, he was employed by the defendant in shoveling sand on a barge into piles to be taken away by a huge steam shovel. The shovel was shifted without warning on the part of the superintendent of the work or by the operator of the machine, the plaintiff being pinned under it, his right leg being greatly injured. He claims to have received permanent injuries. He asks for $5000 damages.

In the second petition he states that at the time of his employment the Bates & Rogers Construction Company had a rule of regulation to which it required its employees to subscribe and agree paying seventy-five cents per month for hospital services in case of accident. He states that he paid the required seventy-five cents for the month of July, but when injured did not receive at the hands of the defendants hospital care or treatment, but that his injuries, which were very severe and painful, were grossly neglected and were rendered more painful and serious by reason of the negligence.

He asks for $2000 damages in the second suit, making a total of $7000 in both suits.

BIG ARMY BILL IS HURRIED IN CONGRESS

Washington, August 22—After the House today had repassed the $314,000,000 army appropriations bill without the revised articles of war, a feature of which caused President to veto the measure, it was hastened to the Senate and there referred to the military committee.

Tonight Chairman Chamberlain announced that the committee would meet tomorrow and restore the articles of war, eliminating the Hay proposal to exempt retired officers and men from the military code, the provision objected to by the President. If a point of order is made and sustained against the articles in the Senate, Senator Chamberlain will seek to retain them by a two-thirds vote.

Representative Hay has let it be known that he will not insist again upon his amendment. There are reports, however, that Republican leader Mann may demand a quorum of the House to send the bill back to conference. Such a development might prolong the session of Congress several days.

THE AGRICULTURAL COURSE

Two farmers were walking on Limestone street yesterday admiring the High School building. Upon noticing the new spiral fire escape one of them remarked, "Well, the High School must be going to have an agricultural course. I see that they have the silo constructed already." We don't blame them one bit for the mistake.

NOTICE

An examination for entrance to the High Schools will be held at the High School building in Maysville, Friday and Saturday, August 25th and 26th, beginning at 9 o'clock.
